TUS Consumer Information

This guide is a resource. Federal regulations require that institutions receiving federal financial (Title IV) assistance provide specific consumer information about the school to prospective and currently enrolled students and, in some cases, employees. This guide, available on the TUS websites at <https://www.taft.edu/> and <https://taftu.edu/> contains important information that TUS is required to disclose on an annual basis.

About Taft University System

Taft University System (TUS) which is comprised of William Howard Taft University and Taft Law School, has over four decades of providing quality distance education programs to adults and professionals. Few people would have projected when we offered its first continuing education programs to certified public accountants in 1976, that the university would evolve into one of the most respected nationally accredited distance learning institutions in the country offering innovative graduate degree programs. In 1976, computer-assisted research was in its infancy and the Internet was known only to a few individuals in the Department of Defense. The massive expansion of the Internet now allows students access to quality learning resources from virtually anywhere in the world.

In 1984, Taft Law School (TLS) was initiated and now law courses were readily available for those individuals who wanted to become attorneys via distance education. Almost five decades later, TUS continued its expansion and now includes WHTU and TLS. TUS is still going strong and is honored to have helped so many achieve their dreams.

TUS Institutional Mission

Mission Statement

The mission and purpose of The Taft University System, comprised of William Howard Taft University and Taft Law School, is to offer unique, innovative distance learning educational programs at a reasonable cost to qualified applicants, providing for positive career outcomes in the law, business, and education sectors.

Institutional Objectives

TLS

The principal objective of the JDAT program is to maintain educational programs that are designed to qualify its graduates for admission to the California Bar. The programs offer instruction in the traditional theoretical subjects generally regarded as the core of the law school curriculum while providing exposure to and training in the approach and skills necessary to successfully complete the GBX.

TLS is committed to providing a quality education responsive to the needs of society, now and into the future. Valuing the rich variety of cultures, races, ages, religions, and ethnic backgrounds in the world today, TLS seeks students from all regions of the United States, and English-speaking students from around the world.

It is an objective of TLS to utilize advancing technologies in the delivery of its educational services to support the mission of the school, the administration and faculty have committed themselves to the attainment of the following outcomes for the JDAT:

- Contribute to becoming a better-informed citizen, voter, and/or businessperson.
- Explore the art of the argument and develop the ability to apply the laws to the facts in a logical and persuasive manner.
- Demonstrate the abilities and skills in legal fundamentals and practical legal skills.
- Exhibit awareness of ethical responsibilities of attorneys
- Possess an understanding of common law, analytical skills and writing approaches necessary to perform well on the California Bar Examination.

Goals

To achieve these objectives, TLS has established the following goals:

- To maintain a directed study educational program that is designed to qualify its graduates for admission to the California Bar, offering instruction in the traditional theoretical subjects generally regarded as the core of the law school curriculum while providing exposure to and training in the approach and skills necessary to successfully complete the GBX.
- To utilize an electronic learning management system to deliver instruction which supports regular and substantive interaction between faculty and students.
- To establish appropriate and clearly defined learning objectives for each course in the curriculum.
- To maintain and adhere to a sound standard of scholarship, including clearly defined standards for good standing, probation, advancement, and graduation. TLS shall not, either by initial admission or subsequent retention, enroll or continue a person whose inability to do satisfactory work is sufficiently manifest that the person's continuation would encourage false hopes or constitute economic exploitation.
- To maintain a system of performance accountability in all possible areas, but particularly in that of program effectiveness and student learning outcomes, through continuous assessment of course materials, faculty, and staff.

The Taft University System, Inc.

WHTU is committed to:

- Providing unique and innovative distance education program options which are attractive to TUS' adult-learner student population.
- Maintaining reasonable tuition fees for each educational offering
- Remaining sustainable in uncertain economic times
- Assuring the mission is fulfilled through student learning.

2023-2024 Financial Aid Consumer Information

TUS participates in federal direct loan programs. For complete information concerning federal student loans can be found: <https://studentaid.gov/sa/types/loans/subsidized-unsubsidized>.

Please note students enrolled in any university program through independent study modality DO NOT MEET ELIGIBILITY TO PARTICIPATE IN THESE PROGRAMS.

Statement of Educational Purpose

Federal financial aid is to be used solely for the students' educational expenses related to their enrollment in TUS' eligible programs.

About Financial Aid

Federal direct loans are received from the federal government. The amounts students can borrow will depend on their grade level and their dependence status, as determined at the time application for admission is submitted. As TUS is only eligible to participate in loan programs for graduate students, the following chart indicates loan funding limits based on the student's graduate status.

TUS participates in the following Federal Direct Loan programs which consists of:

- Direct Unsubsidized Loans
- Federal PLUS Loans

Federal Direct Loans

<https://studentaid.gov/understand-aid/types/loans>

An unsubsidized loan is not awarded on the basis of need. Students will be charged interest from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full. If a student allows the interest to accrue while student is in school or during other periods of nonpayment, it will be added to the principal amount of their loan and additional interest will be based on that higher amount. Students can choose to pay the interest as it accumulates. If a student chooses not to pay the interest while in school, during grace periods and deferment/forbearance periods, the interest will accrue and be capitalized (the interest will accumulate and be added to the principal amount of the loan).

The amounts students can borrow will depend on their grade level, determined at the time application for admission is submitted, and his or her dependency status.

Key benefits:

- Fixed interest rate.
- No payments while enrolled in school.
- Eligibility is not based on demonstrated financial need or credit.
- Multiple repayment plans (including income-based) available.

Federal Direct PLUS Loans

<https://studentaid.gov/understand-aid/types/loans/plus>

The US Department of Education makes Direct PLUS Loans to eligible parents and graduate or professional students through schools participating in the direct loan program. For more information on this loan, please visit the website listed above.

TUS does not participate in the following federal aid programs:

- Federal Perkins Loans
- Federal Pell Grant
- Academic Competitiveness Grant, National SMART Grant
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant

Academic Programs

WHTU has received certification from the US Department of Education to participate in the following Title IV HEA programs. Per current internal practices, students who participate in financial aid can enroll in the directed study modality only for the following programs:

- Master of Education
- Doctor of Education with a Concentration in Charter School Administration
- Doctor of Education with a Concentration in Educational Technology
- Doctor of Education with a Concentration in Leadership and Administration
- Education Specialist with a Concentration in Charter School Administration
- Education Specialist with a Concentration in Leadership and Administration
- Education Specialist with a Concentration in Educational Technology
- Juris Doctor Executive Track Program
- Master of Public Administration
- Doctor of Business Administration
- Master of Business Administration with a Concentration in Healthcare Administration
- Master of Business Administration

For a listing of all WHTU programs, please visit: <https://www.taft.edu/> Students who participate in financial aid can enroll in only the directed study modality.

WHTU Licensure Disclosure

These programs are designed to service a national market and do not purport to provide licensure or credential certification in any state. TLS Licensure Disclosure

The principal objective of the JDAT program is to maintain educational courses that are designed to qualify its graduates for admission to the California State Bar. The courses offer instruction in the traditional theoretical subjects generally regarded as the core of the law school curriculum while providing exposure to and training in the approach and skills necessary to successfully complete the California State Bar exam. As a result of TLS' compliance with specific rules established by the CBE and the California Supreme Court, graduates of the school's JDAT become eligible to sit for the California State Bar exam. Upon successful completion of the requirements for admission to practice law in California, a graduate may become an attorney in the State of California eligible to practice in California and certain Federal Courts. For a summary of these requirements, please go to:

<https://taftu.edu/academics/california-bar-exam/>

Attestation Disclosure

Applicants who enroll in the Juris Doctor Executive Attorney Track (JDAT) program must acknowledge that the program aims to meet the requirements for licensure to practice law as outlined by the State of California. They must understand that successful completion of this program is intended to prepare them to sit for the California Bar Examination. Additionally, there is a commitment to fulfilling any further requirements necessary for licensure in California upon completion of the JDAT program. Upon passing the California Bar Examination, the intent is to practice law in California

Criteria for Federal Financial Aid Eligibility

<https://studentaid.gov/understand-aid/eligibility/requirements>

- File a FASFA for the current award year
- Be a US citizen, national, or eligible non-citizen.
- Have a valid Social Security number (with exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or Republic of Palau)
- Have earned a high school diploma or the equivalent (i.e., GED).
- Be accepted for or enrolled
- Be enrolled at least half-time in an eligible Taft degree program. Must not be in default on any existing federal student loans and not in an overpayment status on a federal grant.
- Must maintain satisfactory academic progress at Taft
- Provide consent and approval to have your federal tax information (FTI) transferred directly into your FASFA form.
- Certify that you will use federal student aid only for educational purposes.

Financial Aid Application Process

Home | Federal Student Aid

The following forms are required to begin the application process for student financial aid loans.

1. Complete the free application for federal student aid (FASFA) or renewal FASFA (for returning students)
2. If the applicant is a first-time borrower, has discharged loans, paid off all prior loans, or previous MPN has expired, complete the federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note.
3. If the applicant is a first-time borrower, has discharged loans, or has paid off all prior loans, complete the Entrance Counseling Form.
4. Complete all TUS enrollment documents.
5. If necessary, complete and submit a Withdrawal/Clearance letter to release any prior FSA obligations at prior schools.

The Taft University System, Inc.

It is highly recommended that students follow the online financial aid process listed on the website at: <https://www.taft.edu/payment-plans-financial-aid>. This link will give the student an overview of the steps to complete the required student financial aid documents, which begins with the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form. A student must apply for Federal Student Aid for each academic year of study.

Requirements Relating to Previously Received Federal Aid Funds

The student must:

- Not be in default on a Title IV federal education loan or owe a refund on a Title IV federal education grant or loan overpayment. If the student has borrowed in excess of annual or cumulative Title IV federal education loan limits, the student must return the excess funds to the lender or provide a reaffirmation agreement from their current lender to qualify for more aid.
- Have repaid Title IV federal student aid funds obtained fraudulently.
- Not have property subject to a judgment lien for a debt owed to the U.S. government.

Maintaining Aid Eligibility

To retain eligibility for federal student aid, the student must:

- Remain in compliance with basic eligibility criteria.
- Make satisfactory academic progress (SAP). For complete information regarding SAP, refer to the satisfactory academic progress policy in this document.
- Complete the FASFA form annually.

Students' eligibility for Title IV federal aid may be affected by such factors as remedial coursework, correspondence study, distance education study, programs of study and incarceration.

Interest Rates and Fees

<https://studentaid.gov/help-center/answers/article/what-is-current-interest-rate-for-direct-unsubsidized-loans>

The interest rates on direct unsubsidized loans are fixed and do not change over the life of the loan. For loans disbursed after July 1, 2024, and prior to July 1, 2025, the interest rate for graduate/professional students' direct unsubsidized loans is 8.05%.

Interest rates are reset on July 1 of each year. These new rates will apply to all loans disbursed during the period of July 1, 2025, and through June 30, 2026.

Every year on July 1, interest rates are reset based on current market rates. The interest rates are based on the 10-year Treasury rate.

The current origination fee on Federal Direct Loans is 1.057% (effective 10/1/2020). Fees are deducted from each loan disbursement. Students must repay the total amount borrowed, including origination fees.

Loan Limits

<https://studentaid.gov/understand-aid/types/loans/subsidized-unsubsidized>

The Department of Education sets both an aggregate limit and an annual limit for the amount of loans that a student may borrow in Federal Student Aid. Regardless of the number of schools that a student attends during an academic year, a student may not receive more than the annual limit for loans for their grade level. If a student has received Federal Student Aid at another institution before enrolling at a TUS institution, the amount of that Federal Student Aid will be taken into consideration when determining the student's eligibility for Federal Student Aid at Taft.

For graduate/professional students, the total amount borrowed cannot exceed $138,500. No more than $65,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans. The graduate aggregate limit includes all federal loans received for undergraduate study. The following table indicates Stafford Loan funding limits based on student's status of a graduate student. A student whose parent cannot obtain a PLUS loan is allowed to borrow additional unsubsidized Stafford amounts. A student's dependency status will be determined based on his or her answers to questions on the FAFSA.

Year	Independent Students (and dependent undergraduate students whose parents are unable to obtain PLUS Loans)
First-Year Undergraduate Annual Loan Limit	$9,500 – No more than $3,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.
Second-Year Undergraduate Annual Loan Limit	$10,500 – No more than $4,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.
Third Year and Beyond Undergraduate Annual Loan Limit	$12,500 – No more than $5,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.
Graduate or Professional Student Annual Loan Limit	$20,500 (subsidized only)
Subsidized and Unsubsidized Aggregate Loan Limit	$57,500 for undergraduates – No more than $23,000 of this amount may be in subsidized loans. $138,500 for graduate or professional students – No more than $65,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans. The graduate aggregate limit includes all federal loans received for undergraduate study.

These figures represent the maximum annual borrowing limits; not all students will qualify for the maximum amount.

The average processing time for financial aid is 30-60 days.

Scholarships and Grants

Application of Funds to Student's University Account

Through completion of the Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN), the student will have authorized the university to apply federal funds to their university account. The funds must be applied to the student account within three days of receipt from the Federal Government. If a student is eligible to receive any remaining funds, the excess funds in the form of a check will either be electronically deposited to the student's bank account or mailed via Certified 1st Class Mail to the student's address of record. At that time, the student will be notified of the disposition of the funds that the university retained. The university must disburse excess loan funds to the students within 14 days.

If the student becomes ineligible to receive financial aid due to failed grades, failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress or a change in their enrollment status which impacts the amount of their expected financial aid, the student will be responsible for any tuition incurred during the payment period.

Financial Aid Entrance and Exit Counseling

Students who have not previously received a subsidized/unsubsidized loan or PLUS loan (graduate/professional students only) under the Direct Loan Program or Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) program, have discharged loans, or have paid off prior loans are required to complete entrance counseling.

Entrance Counseling

Entrance Counseling | Federal Student Aid

Entrance counseling will include an explanation of the use of a Master Promissory Note (MPN), the importance of the repayment obligation, a description of the consequences of default, sample repayment schedules, information in reference to a borrower's rights and responsibilities, as well as other terms and conditions. Loan exit counseling will be provided when a student completes their course of study or withdraws from the university.

Entrance counseling is completed by the student who will review the following information on the U.S. Department of Education's website. The student must take and pass a quiz provided by the Department of Education regarding entrance counseling information.

- An explanation of the use of the MPN.
- The importance of the repayment obligation.
- Description of consequences of default.
- Sample repayment schedules.
- Information in reference to a borrower's rights and responsibilities.
- Information on the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS).
- Information on possible loss of eligibility for additional Direct Subsidized Loans.
- Information on how a borrower's maximum eligibility period, remaining eligibility period and subsidized usage period are determined.
- The potential for a borrower becoming responsible for all accruing interest on Direct Subsidized Loans during in-school periods, grace periods, and periods of authorized deferment.
- Impact of borrower responsibility for accruing interest on the borrower's total debt
- Other term and conditions

The Taft University System, Inc.

- Information will be provided in reference to the seriousness and importance of the repayment obligation. Although payment coupons or billing statements may be sent as a convenience for the borrower, not receiving them does not relieve the borrower of their obligation to make payments.
- The counseling information provided will describe the likely consequences of default, including adverse credit reports. Federal offset and litigation. In addition, charges might be imposed for delinquency or default, such as the lenders or guarantor's collection expenses (including attorney fees). A defaulter is no longer eligible for any deferment provision if he or she would otherwise qualify. Finally, a defaulter's federal and state tax refunds may be seized, wages garnished, and the borrower loses eligibility for any further funding from the student financial aid programs.
- The multi-year feature of the Master Promissory Note (MPN) will be explained indicating that students will be able to obtain additional loans from the Direct Loan programs without having to sign a new promissory note for each period of enrollment. If a student enrolling with the university has an existing MPN, they will need to sign an MPN Authorization. Student will be required to complete a new MPN if he or she is a first-time borrower, has discharged loans, has paid off all prior loans, or existing MPN is expired.

Exit Counseling

<https://studentaid.gov/exit-counseling/>

Some of the information presented at the entrance counseling session will again be presented during the exit counseling.

- An explanation of the use of the MPN.
- The importance of the repayment obligation
- A description of the consequences of default
- Sample repayment schedule3s
- Information in reference to the borrower's rights and responsibilities
- Information on the NSLDS
- Information on the possible loss of eligibility for additional Direct Subsidized Loans
- Information on how a borrower's maximum eligibility period, remaining eligibility period, and subsidized usage period are determined.
- The potential for a borrower becoming responsible for all accruing interest on Direct Subsidized loans during in-school periods, grace periods, and periods of authorized deferment.
- Impact of the borrower's responsibility for accruing interest on the borrower's total debt
- Other terms and conditions

Deferment

<https://studentaid.gov/manage-loans/lower-payments/get-temporary-relief/deferment>

TUS students are eligible to defer repayment of existing federally insured student loans during their enrollment period. Students enrolled in any TUS programs are eligible for this benefit. There is no charge for the completion of loan deferral forms. Deferment forms should be obtained from the loan servicer. Students must submit all deferment forms to the Financial Aid Office. The loan servicer will make the final determination of granting the deferment request.

While enrolled in school at least half-time, direct loans may be placed into deferment, which means students do not have to make any payments. In addition, students do not have to make payments during the six-month grace period after graduation or if the student drops below half-time enrollment status. The interest on the student's direct unsubsidized loans will begin to accrue as soon as all the loan funds are sent to the school. Even though the student is not making any payments, interest is still adding up.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Students may also obtain deferments for several reasons including but not limited to unemployment, economic hardship, serving in the Peace Corps, under the Domestic Volunteer Service Act. Receiving a deferment is not automatic; therefore, the student must apply for it. Borrowers must formally request a deferment through the procedures established by the servicer of their loan(s).

Repayment

<https://studentaid.gov/sites/default/files/repaying-your-loans.pdf>

There are many options for the student regarding repayment. For samples of repayment schedules or to get an idea of what loan payments are available and what the repayment loan amounts might be, please visit:

<https://studentaid.gov/loan-simulator/>

Default

<https://studentaid.gov/manage-loans/default>.

If a student does not make their loan payments, they risk going into default. Defaulting on a student loan has serious consequences. The school, the financial institution that made or owns the loan, the loan guarantor, or the federal government can all take action to recover the money owed to them. To understand defaulting on a student loan and what the student needs to do if their loan is in default or if a student thinks the default on their loan is in error, is critical. The consequences of default can be severe:

- The entire unpaid balance of the loan (and interest) is immediately due and payable.
- The student will lose eligibility for deferment, forbearance, and repayment plans.
- The student will lose eligibility for additional federal student aid.
- The student's loan account is assigned to a collection agency.

Payment Policies

Tuition for each course must be paid according to the terms and conditions as outlined on the tuition and fees exhibit to the student's enrollment agreement. All tuition, fees and payment policies are determined prior to enrollment and outlined in the enrollment documents.

DANTES Reimbursement

<https://www.dantes.mil/>

TUS participates in tuition assistance (TA) for those who serve in active military. TUS' programs and courses offered are listed on the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES) website. In certain situations, spouses of military personnel may also be eligible for education assistance benefits.

Tuition assistance policy questions must be directed to the respective branch of service. Information regarding TA for each branch of service can be found on the DANTES Website. The first step is to contact the military educational counselor to discuss the program options and the TA approval process. Please contact the WHTU's financial aid office with any questions.

Department of Veterans Reimbursement education representative, using a toll-free number 888-442-4551, to answer questions and provide instructions on the application process.

TLS does not participate in VA education programs.

Overpayment of Federal Funds

In rare circumstances a student may have received FSA funds in error. Such a student who owes an overpayment because of withdrawal from the university and a subsequent Return of Title IV program funds calculation will retain FSA funding eligibility for 45 days from the date that the university sends a notification to the student of the overpayment. During the 45 days, the student will have the opportunity to take appropriate action that can continue their eligibility for FSA funds. This may be accomplished by repaying the overpayment in full to the university or by signing a repayment agreement with the U.S. Department of Education. If the student does not take one of these two actions during the 45-day period, he or she becomes ineligible for future funding on the 46th day. Further information on signing a repayment agreement with the U.S. Department of Education may be obtained from the university's Financial Aid Office. A student is not obligated to return a grant overpayment of less than $25 and is therefore eligible to receive FSA funding if the student returns to the university. A student is liable for an overpayment of less than $25 when that amount is a remaining balance. A remaining balance occurs when the overpayment amount was originally $25 or more, but it is now less than $25 because the student has made payments.

Financial Aid Verification

<https://fsapartners.ed.gov/knowledge-center/fsa-handbook/2021-2022/application-and-verification-guide/ch4-verification-updates-and-corrections>

A student may be chosen to participate in the verification process of information submitted on their FAFSA. The FAFSA Processing System (FPS) selects which applications are to be verified following procedures established by federal regulations. The CPS prints an asterisk next to the EFC on the ISIR, SAR or SAR Acknowledgement to identify students who have been selected for verification. If a student is selected for verification, the university will usually request the student to complete a verification worksheet. An IRS Transcript may also be required. Additional documents may be requested by the university to complete the verification process. Students will receive written notification from the University of verification requirements and the timelines for completion of the process.

Verification must be completed within two weeks of notification from the university. Corrections involving the federal processor must be made prior to the Federal Student Aid Report (SAR) correction deadline. An applicant's failure to provide required documentation within the specified time frame will result in the loss of all Title IV aid and the tuition balance becomes due immediately.

Any conflicting information, even if the ISIR is not selected for verification, must be resolved before federal student aid may be disbursed. Students will be notified of any changes needed to be made to an ISIR because of the verification process. Any information which requires a change to the ISIR will be made with the student's authorization. A student who becomes aware of the need for a change to the ISIR should notify the Office of Student Finance so the necessary correction can be made.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Should the student receive a payment and then withdraw from the University and this withdrawal results in an overpayment; the Financial Aid Office will complete a Return of Title IV Funds and notify the student of his/her responsibility in making repayment.

Federal Student Aid Student Loan Ombudsman

<https://studentaid.gov/feedback-ombudsman/disputes/prepare>

Attendance Policies

TLS

<https://taftu.edu/program-summary-catalogs/>

Students must meet attendance requirements based on the learning modality they are enrolled in to demonstrate academic progress. Attendance is assessed through participation in a discussion forum, submission of an assignment, or by participating in a quiz or exam. Simply logging on to the learning management system does not represent attendance.

Students who are not active for 14 consecutive days will be administratively withdrawn from the program. For more information on attendance requirements, visit the website listed above.

WHTU

Students may cease enrollment at any time in their academic program, subject to the enrollment agreement's terms. Refunds and adherence to continuous enrollment policies are based on the last date of attendance.

Students must meet attendance requirements based on the learning modality they are enrolled in to demonstrate academic progress. Attendance is assessed through participation in a discussion forum, submission of an assignment, or by participating in a quiz or exam. Simply logging on to the learning management system does not represent attendance. A student who does not post attendance in the first seven days of an eight-week term (add/drop period) is withdrawn from the term and the registration is canceled. All tuition paid and/or financial aid dollars awarded will be refunded within 30 days.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Students who are not active for 14 consecutive days, will be administratively withdrawn from the course. A withdrawal in the first four weeks of the eight-week course will receive a W on the transcript and no credit will be awarded. The course will not be included in the cumulative GPA calculation.

Constitution Day

Constitution Day is on September 17th. Each year on that day the TUS holds a presentation regarding the Constitution for all students. An e-mail is sent to all students a couple of weeks prior to Constitution Day giving students information on how to participate in the Constitution Day event.

Copyright Infringement and Peer-to-Peer file Sharing

TUS expects their students, faculty, staff, and affiliates to comply with U.S. copyright laws. Although most people understand that copying from books or other published materials may be a copyright violation, sharing digital files may also be a violation. Most software, music, and other original works of creativity have intellectual property protections. Violation of copyright right law can subject a person to both civil and criminal penalties.

TUS may also act if it discovers a copyright violation. Copyright infringement and illegal peer to peer file sharing will subject the person or persons involved to discipline including termination from TUS. TUS reserves the right to remove or limit access to material posted on TUS-owned computers if it is alleged that U.S. copyright laws have been violated. If TUS determines that U.S. intellectual property laws have in fact been violated, the infringing material will be permanently removed.

Penalties for copyright infringement: The Copyright Act provides for both civil and criminal liability for acts of copyright infringement.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Criminal Infringement

Any person who willfully infringes a copyright shall be punished as provided under section 2319 of title 18, if the infringement was committed:

- A. For purposes of commercial advantage or private financial gain.
- B. By the reproduction or distribution, including by electronic means, during any 180-day period, of 1 or more copies or phone records of 1 or more copyrighted works, which have a total retail value of more than $1,000.
- C. By the distribution of a work being prepared for commercial distribution, by making it available on a computer network accessible to members of the public, if such person knew or should have known that the work was intended for commercial distribution. 17 U.S.C. § 506(a).

The penalties for criminal infringement are determined by the extent of infringement, e.g. the number of copies made, or the value of the material infringed. They range from a misdemeanor penalty of up to one year imprisonment and/or a fine up to $25,000 for individuals, to a felony penalty of up to 5 years imprisonment and/or a fine of up to $250,000 for individuals and $500,000 for organizations. 18 U.S.C. § 2319.

Copyright Rules for Faculty

The Copyright Act of 1976 contains a Fair Use provision that allows educators to use copyrighted material in their courses. There are four factors that must be met to qualify as Fair Use of the material. See: U.S. Copyright Office. Fair Use and Limitations on exclusive rights: Fair use. Those qualifications are:

- A. The purpose and character of the use, including whether such use is of a commercial nature or is for non-profit educational purposes.
- B. The nature of copyrighted work.
- C. The amount and substantiality of the portion used in relation to the copyrighted work as a whole.
- D. The effect of the use upon the potential market for or value of the copyrighted work.
- E. The practical translations of these four factors are:
 - The purpose of the material must be strictly for educational use.
 - The material must be a published work (and not consumable such as workbook pages).
 - The material must be a portion of the original work, such as a chapter in a book or an article from a periodical or newspaper.
 - The material must be from an original work legally obtained or purchased and a limited number of copies made, such as for one class.

In addition, instructors may also meet the test of spontaneity and brevity. For example, if an instructor finds an article appropriate to something being taught in the course, and there is not enough time to get permission from the copyright owner, they may make copies as are necessary to instruct the class. Likewise, only a portion of a work may be copied, and the copied material may be used for only one course. Instructors, who intend to use the material for more than one course, must obtain permission from the copyright owner.

Exceptions to the Copyright Law

Some materials are not protected by copyright. For example: ideas, facts, U.S. government works, works for which copyright has expired, works in the public domain, and live performances which are not "fixed."

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Usage Policy

AI tools must be used in a manner that upholds the principles of academic integrity. Plagiarism or unauthorized assistance using AI is strictly prohibited. Students must disclose the use of AI tools in their work and ensure proper attribution where applicable. Any work generated or significantly assisted by AI must be clearly labeled, with the role of AI explicitly stated. Users must ensure that any personal or sensitive data processed by AI tools is handled securely and ethically. AI should be used responsibly and ethically, avoiding applications that could cause harm or bias. Users must critically assess AI outputs and remain accountable for their own work, ensuring that AI enhances rather than diminishes academic rigor.

Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action per university procedures. We aim to foster an environment where AI is used responsibly to enhance learning, research, and administrative functions while maintaining the highest academic integrity and ethical conduct standards.

Disability Policy

TUS prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities and will continue to develop training and resources to encourage and increase sensitivity and awareness of disability issues. The institution provides reasonable accommodation for people with disabilities. Therefore, the institution will continue to develop and coordinate policies and procedures, and provide services and access to academic courses, activities, and programs. The school respects the independence, rights, and dignity of people with disabilities. Therefore, identifying oneself and/or requesting accommodations is completely voluntary. In accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the institution will handle all data on students with disabilities confidentially.

TUS' mission with respect to disability services is to provide equal access to applicants and students with disabilities while maintaining the integrity of the school's academic standards. TUS' administration provides accommodations and services to qualified students with disabilities so they may achieve their full educational potential. This includes educating TUS' faculty and staff about disabilities, federal regulations, and accommodation methods.

TLS students with disabilities which require special attention should notify the school well in advance of the final examination period.

Diversity Policy

TUS is dedicated to nurturing a thriving learning community that embraces a diverse group of students, faculty, staff, and leadership, each contributing unique backgrounds, cultures, languages, identities, and experiences to the organization. Together, through a shared interest in education, the university brings forth a rich tapestry of experiences reflective of our global communities. TUS believes that cultivating mutual understanding and practicing respectful communication are vital in shaping accomplished and ethically responsible global citizens, poised to make significant contributions to the betterment of society.

Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Policy

TUS is committed to promoting a drug-free learning environment. TUS has a vital interest in maintaining a safe and healthy environment for the benefit of its employees and students. Drug abuse affects all aspects of life. It threatens the workplace as well as homes, schools, and community. The U.S. Department of Education requires institutions of higher education to implement a drug prevention and awareness program for their students and employees. Consistent with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (Public Law 101-226), all students and employees are advised that individuals who violate federal, state, or local laws and campus policies are subject to TUS disciplinary action and criminal prosecution.

Standards of Conduct

Students are expected to conduct themselves ethically, honestly and with integrity as responsible members of TUS' community. TUS' community must adhere to a code of conduct that recognizes the unlawful manufacture, sale, delivery, unauthorized possession, or use of any illicit drug is prohibited on TUS property. If an individual is apprehended for violating any alcohol or other drug-related law while at a TUS location or activity, TUS will fully support and cooperate with federal and state law enforcement agencies. TUS enforces a "zero tolerance" policy regarding underage drinking.

Institutional Sanctions

Any member of the TUS community found possessing or selling illegal drugs on TUS property shall be subject to discipline on a case-by-case basis:

- Discipline will be based on the seriousness of the situation.
- A case may result in dismissal from TUS.
- In all cases, TUS will abide by local, state and federal sanctions regarding unlawful possession of drugs and the consumption of alcohol.
- Additional state penalties and sanctions may also apply.
- Penalties may include required participation in and completion of appropriate rehabilitation programs.
- TUS has adopted a zero-tolerance policy regarding alcohol and drug violations.

Legal Sanctions (Federal, State, and Local)

There are numerous legal sanctions under local, state, and federal laws which can be used to punish violators. Penalties range from suspensions, revocation, denial of a driver's license, and/or 20-50 years' imprisonment. Property may be seized. Community services may be mandated. For more information about federal penalties and sanctions visit the Drug Enforcement Administration website.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Federal anti-drug laws affect a number of areas in everyone's lives. Students could lose eligibility for financial aid and could be denied other federal benefits, such as social security, retirement, welfare, health care, disability, and veteran benefits.

In addition to local and state authorities, the federal government has four agencies employing approximately 52,500 personnel engaged in fighting illicit drugs. These agencies are: The Drug Enforcement Agency, U.S. Customs Service, Federal Bureau of Investigations, and the U.S. Coast Guard.

Federal Financial Aid Penalties for Drug Violations

According to the Higher Education Act (HEA), if a student is convicted of a drug-related felony or misdemeanor that took place while they were receiving federal student aid, the student will become ineligible to receive further aid during a period of enrollment for which they were receiving federal student aid. If the student was convicted of both possessing and selling illegal drugs during a period for which the student was receiving federal student aid, and the periods of ineligibility are different, then the student will be ineligible for the longer period. If the conviction was reversed, set aside, or removed from the student's record, or if the conviction occurred while the student was a juvenile (unless the student was tried as an adult) it will not affect student's eligibility. If students lose their financial aid eligibility, TUS will notify them of their status in writing including how to regain eligibility.

Health Risks Associated with Use and Abuse

Students should be aware there are significant psychological and physiological health risks associated with the use of illicit drugs and alcohol. Drug abuse is the utilization of natural and/or synthetic chemical substances for non-medical reasons affecting the body and its processes, the mind and nervous system, and behavior. The abuse of drugs can affect a person's physical and emotional health and social life. Alcohol is the most abused drug in the United States.

Drugs can be highly addictive and injurious to the body, as well as oneself. People tend to lose their sense of responsibility, control, and coordination. Restlessness, irritability, anxiety, paranoia, depressions, acting slow moving, inattentiveness, loss of appetite, sexual indifference, comas, convulsions, serious damage to vital organs or even death can result from overuse or abuse of alcohol and drugs.

A description of alcohol and drug categories, their effects, symptoms of overdose, withdrawal symptoms and indications of misuse can be found at:

Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination Policies

Consistent with sound educational policy, TUS does not discriminate based on sex, race, color, ancestry, religious creed, national origin, disability, medical condition, age, marital status, political affiliation, sexual orientation, gender identity, or veteran status.

Evaluation of Transcripts

TUS is required to verify, through the evaluation of official transcripts, that an applicant is eligible to be enrolled in a program. The deadline for submission of transcripts is as follows:

- TLS - All official transcripts of pre-legal education must be submitted within 30 days of the start of courses.
- WHTU - All official transcripts required for admission must be submitted within 30 days of the start of courses. The amount of transfer credit will vary depending on the specific program. The acceptance of transfer credits between academic institutions lies within the discretion of the receiving college or university. Credits earned at WHTU may or may not be accepted by another institution, depending upon its own programs, policies, and regulations.

Students seeking transfer or portfolio credit should reach out to their admissions representative for full requirements and procedures prior to matriculation into a program of study. Credit requests are evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Official transcripts must be received to finalize the transfer credit calculation. Applicants will be notified prior to enrollment what transfer or portfolio credit if any, will be accepted.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and Consumer Privacy Policy

Student records are regarded as confidential for all schools receiving funding under programs administered by the U.S. Department of Education in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). Generally, information pertaining to students' records shall not be released to a third party without written authorization of the student, judicial order, or a lawfully issued subpoena.

Education records are all records an institution maintains regarding a student.

Exception: The following are not interpreted as education records:

- Personal records maintained by an individual must be kept in the sole possession of the individual and are not accessible to others.
- Records of a law enforcement unit of an educational institution.
- Personnel records: records related to a person as an employee not used for any other purpose.
- Medical records.
- Records created after the student is no longer a student, alumni records.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Information Which May Be Disclosed

In compliance with FERPA, the following student record information may be disclosed by the university's designated representative without prior written consent of the student, a judicial order, or a lawfully issued subpoena.

- Dates of attendance at the university.
- Dates of admission to the university.
- University programs of study.
- University degree completion dates and types of degrees earned.
- Student's current enrollment status (full-time, part-time, withdrawn).
- Most recent previous institutions attended by students and degree(s) earned.
- Grade level (i.e. first semester graduate student, second year first professional degree student)
- Photographs.

Exception: If a student submits a written request that his or her directory information not be released, NO INFORMATION MAY BE RELEASED, absent a judicial order or a lawfully issued subpoena. A request of this nature is only valid throughout the student's term of enrollment.

As of January 3, 2012, the U.S. Department of Education's FERPA regulations expand the circumstances under which your education records and personally identifiable information (PII) contained in such records – including your Social Security Number, grades, or other private information – may be accessed without your consent. First, the U.S. Comptroller General, the U.S. Attorney General, the U.S. Secretary of Education, or state and local education authorities ("Federal and State Authorities") may allow access to your records and PII without your consent to any third party designated by a Federal or State Authority to evaluate a federal- or state-supported education program. The evaluation may relate to any program that is "principally engaged in the provision of education," such as early childhood education and job training, as well as any program that is administered by an education agency or institution. Second, Federal and State Authorities may allow access to your education records and PII without your consent to researchers performing certain types of studies, in certain cases even when we object to or do not request such research. Federal and State Authorities must obtain certain use-restriction and data security promises from the entities that they authorize to receive your PII, but the Authorities need not maintain direct control over such entities. In addition, in connection with Statewide Longitudinal Data Systems, State Authorities may collect, compile, permanently retain, and share without your consent PII from your education records, and they may track your participation in education and other programs by linking such PII to other personal information about you that they may obtain from other Federal or State data sources, including workforce development, unemployment insurance, child welfare, juvenile justice, military service, and migrant student record systems.

Information Which Must Not Be Released:

In compliance with FERPA, the following student information shall not be released by the University without the prior written consent of the student, a judicial order or a lawfully issued subpoena. The student's signature on the written requests shall be verified before acting upon the request.

- Date and place of birth. *
- Home addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers. *
- Individual record number (IRN). **
- Class schedules.
- Employment information including employer, position held, work address, or work phone number.
- Academic performance information, such as academic suspension, probation, disqualification or academic dishonesty charges.
- Admission information, including test scores or entry grade point averages.

The Taft University System, Inc.

- Financial/accounting information.

Rationale: Although this information may be disclosed without prior written consent according to FERPA, the university's policy is to maintain the confidentiality of this student information. The university will notify students to provide contact information directly to a third party when this information is requested.

*Rationale: Student IRNs, SSNs or FSA User ID's generally should not be released to a third party, unless it is necessary to perform a required task (i.e. Student Financial Agreement, FBI Request, etc.). These non-directory identifiers should not be released even with a signed FERPA Release form in order to avoid the risk of personal identity theft.

Exceptions: The university may release information to school officials with legitimate educational interest. The university may release information under the following conditions:

- School officials with legitimate educational interest.
- Other schools to which a student seeks or intends to enroll.
- Specified officials for audit and evaluation purposes.
- Appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to a student.
- Organizations conducting studies for or on behalf of the school.
- Accrediting organizations.
- To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.
- Appropriate officials in cases of health and safety emergencies.
- State and local authorities, pursuant to state law.
- Information concerning registered sex offenders who are required to register under the Violent Crime Control & Law Enforcement Act of 1994.
- To the Attorney General of the United States or to his/her designee in response to an ex-parte order in connection with the investigation or prosecution of terrorism crimes specified in 2332b(g)(5)(5) and 2331 of Title 18, U.S. Code.

A school official is defined as:

- A person employed by TUS in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position.
- A person employed by or under contract to TUS to perform a task.
- A person serving on an institutional governing body or committee.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if they are:

- Performing a task specified in their job description/contract.
- Performing a task related to a student's education.
- Providing a service or benefit relating to the student or student's family.
- Representing a school in which a student seeks to enroll; and then only after notification has been attempted to the student.
- Federal and State authorities auditing compliance of Federal or State-Support programs.
- Disclosing information in connection with financial aid; to determine financial aid eligibility; amount of aid, conditions for the aid, or to enforce the terms of conditions of the aid.
- State and local officials complying with laws in effect prior to 1974 requiring disclosure.
- Performing studies on behalf of educational institutions.
- Accrediting organizations carrying out their function.
- Complying with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena; provided notification to the student is made before complying with the subpoena.

The Taft University System, Inc.

- Performing responsibilities as committee members.

Students shall have reasonable access to their University records and may request to review their educational records and may challenge the contents of their educational records which they feel to be inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of their privacy or other rights.

Under FERPA, schools may charge a reasonable fee for this service. The current fee for copies is $15.00 per transcript, depending on the program, and/or .25¢ per page for all non-transcript related material.

Students have the right to request in writing a copy of the university's FERPA policy.

With respect to FERPA matters, students have the right to file a complaint with the Family Policy Compliance Office in Washington, D.C. Inquiries should be directed to:

Family Policy Compliance Office
United States Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5920

For a period of 25 years following the death of a student, requests for education records on deceased students must have written authorization from the estate executor. Beyond this time, requests for these records may be released to anyone after review and approval from the registrar's office.

Procedure

Students alleging that their university records are inaccurate or misleading, or who allege violations of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, may present their challenges to the university registrar.

Students have the right to correct record keeping errors, but not to seek to overturn administration decisions and/or assessments. The registrar shall review students' challenges and when appropriate amend students' records accordingly. Students will be notified within 15 days of the Registrar's actions and based on the action may request a formal hearing.

- Students must submit a request for amendment in writing to the registrar identifying the specific portion of their record they want changed and why they believe it's inaccurate or in violation of his/her privacy. The registrar will respond to the request within 15 days.
- If the university denies the request to change the record, the registrar will notify the student of the decision and advise them of their right to challenge the information.
- Students' request for a formal hearing must be made in writing and submitted to the attention of the registrar at the offices of the university. The registrar will arrange for a hearing, and notify the student in advance, of the date, place, and time of the hearing. Students may present relevant evidence and may be assisted or represented at the hearings by one or more persons of their choice, including an attorney, at the student's expense.
- The university shall be represented by a hearing panel appointed by the director of administration of the university. The panel shall consider all relevant evidence supporting students' allegations of inaccurate or misleading information in students' records. Decisions of the panel will be final.
- The university will prepare a written decision based on evidence presented at the hearing and will include a summary of evidence presented and the rationale for the decision.
- If the university decides that the challenged information is not misleading, inaccurate, or in violation of the student's privacy rights, it will notify the student of their right to place in the record a statement

The Taft University System, Inc.

- commenting on the challenged information or a statement of reasons for disagreeing with the decision.
- The statement will be maintained as a part of the student's record as long as the contested portion is maintained. If the university discloses the contested portion of the record, it must also disclose the statement.
 - If the university decides the information is inaccurate or in violation of the student's right of privacy, it will amend the record and notify the student, in writing, that the record has been amended.

Exception: Students may not inspect and review the following records absent a judicial order or legally issued subpoena:

- Confidential letters and recommendations for which they have waived their rights of inspection.
- Educational records containing information about more than one student (access is permitted only to that part of the record concerning the inquiring student).
- Records of instructional, supervisory, administrative, and certain educational personnel which are in the possession of the originator.
- Records connected with an application to attend the university if the application was denied. (i.e., a student is enrolled in an undergraduate program and applies for admission to a graduate program but is denied.
- The university cannot deny students access to their records. Copies do not need to be provided, absent a judicial order or a lawfully issued subpoena unless by not providing copies, the student's rights are denied.

Exception: The university may release foreign transcripts to students because original transcripts from institutions in other countries may be difficult or impossible for students to replace.

Housing and Transportation

TUS is an online institution and therefore does not provide either housing or transportation to students.

Leave of Absence (LOA's)

WHTU does not offer a formal leave of absence policy. Student situations are monitored on an individual basis.

TLS

The CBE requires that a student complete a minimum of 864 hours of study during an academic year of not less than 48 nor more than 52 consecutive weeks. Due to this CBE rule, LOA's are not permitted during the academic year. If due to unforeseen circumstances, a student cannot fulfill these academic requirements, a student may withdraw. After withdrawal, the student may petition to start over in a new academic year. Students should keep in mind the CBE requirements of 864 hours of study must be completed in the NEW 48-to-52-week period and the study log should reflect the new period.

A student who fails to return will have his/her enrollment status reported as withdrawn from the program in the National Student Loan Data System (NSDLS). For a student with a Federal Direct Loan, who does not return on their scheduled date, the grace period will begin on the date student was deemed withdrawn.

Non-Discrimination Policy

TUS prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities and will continue to develop training and resources to encourage and increase sensitivity and awareness of disability issues. The institution provides reasonable accommodation for people with disabilities. Therefore, the institution will continue to develop and coordinate policies and procedures, and provide services and access to academic courses, activities, and programs. The school respects the independence, rights, and dignity of people with disabilities. Therefore, identifying oneself and/or requesting accommodations is completely voluntary. In accordance with the

The Taft University System, Inc.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the institution will handle all data on students with disabilities confidentially.

TUS adheres to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and their regulations, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975."

Notice Concerning Transferability of Units and Degrees Earned at TUS

The transferability of credits earned at TUS is at the complete discretion of an institution to which students seek to transfer. Acceptance of the diploma or degree earned at TUS is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which students may seek to transfer. If the credits, diploma, or degree that earned at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which students seek to transfer, students may be required to repeat some or all of the course work at the institution. For this reason, students should make certain that their attendance at this institution will meet educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which students may seek to transfer after attending TUS to determine if your credits, diploma or degree will transfer.

All TUS students must provide the school with official transcripts of all previous college work within 30 days of the date of enrollment. Transcripts must be received by the school directly from the student's prior college or university. Student copies are not acceptable.

TLS will prepare and keep a permanent transcript for each student who was or is enrolled in any course at TUS. The transcript will contain:

- Information sufficient to clearly identify the student.
- Information sufficient to establish admission status as a regular or special student.
- Date of admission.
- Whether the student is or is not a Juris Doctor degree candidate.
- Any credit allowed for law study at another institution, either at the time of admission or thereafter, listing law school, course or courses taken, when taken, unit credit allowed, and grades received.
- All academic credit granted for courses taken at the law school and all courses in which the student registered, clearly indicating by beginning and ending dates the semester, quarter, or other applicable academic period and year, the courses and their unit value, credit granted and grade(s) received, and if there is a change or correction on the face of the transcript, a notation of the reason(s) for the change.
- The date or dates on which the student took the FYLSX and whether the student passed or failed each examination.
- A notation of any academic, administrative, or disciplinary action taken, indicating the nature and date thereof.
- A notation of any leaves of absence granted or other interruptions in study, whether authorized or not.
- The date and nature thereof as withdrawal, disqualification, transfer, graduation, or otherwise, and if graduated, the degree conferred.

Refund, Cancellation and Withdrawal Policies

TLS has adopted the following refund policy which will apply to this agreement.

If a student cancels enrollment within five days of student's execution of this agreement, the school will refund all money paid by student. "Enrollment" for refund purposes is considered to have become effective upon execution of this agreement by student. Should student cancel this agreement within 14 days after the start date of the current academic year, the school will refund 100% of tuition charges paid by the student.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Refunds are calculated on a prorate basis, based on a fifty-two (52) week academic year. The prorated amount is 2% per week up to 60% of the academic year. Thereafter, if a student withdraws or is dismissed, the student shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of tuition charges up to thirty weeks from the date of enrollment. No refunds are payable after week thirty and refunds are not payable for completed courses or administrative fees. For refund calculation purposes, any withdrawal shall become effective on the date student notifies the school, in any manner, of student's intent. However, for the withdrawal to be effective, students must follow the procedures set forth in the "Notices" section of this agreement. Dismissals shall be effective on the date such action is taken by the administration or when a student fails to maintain the academic standards set forth in the student catalog, whichever shall occur first. As an example of the refund policy: a student started their academic year on July 3, 2023, paying tuition in the amount of $8,760.00 and withdrawing on September 11, 2023 (a period of 10 weeks) without completing any courses would receive a refund of $7,008.00, ($8,760.00 multiplied by 80%. On September 11th, 80% of the academic year remained.). Refund computations are based on the total tuition obligation, not the amount of tuition previously paid. Unless otherwise noted in writing, other school fees are non-refundable. The school will issue refunds pursuant to the above conditions within 30 days from the date the withdrawal notice is received by the school. If a loan was obtained to pay for tuition, it is student's responsibility to repay the full amount of any loan plus any interest. The student is advised that some financial institutions require TLS to repay any refunds due directly to the lender and the student expressly authorizes the school to comply with such requests.

Accreditation regulations and university policy dictate the minimum and maximum time to complete degree programs. In no case may a student complete a degree program in less than one calendar year. The maximum time to complete the JDAT program is seven years. A student may be administratively dismissed for failure to complete a program within the time frame outlined.

Withdrawing from School

Before withdrawing, it is recommended the student discuss their options with an academic advisor. Students may withdraw from school without prejudice by written notification to the admissions office any time prior to the final examination period. Submission of the request for withdrawal form will withdraw the student from all currently enrolled courses.

The Taft University System, Inc.

For students that paid tuition using financial aid, a Title IV refund (R2T4) calculation will be completed in conjunction with Taft's refund calculation to determine the amount of tuition earned by TLS, in addition to any potential funds that must be returned by TLS to Title IV on the student's behalf. Any tuition due to TLS that was not covered by Title IV funds is the responsibility of the student to pay.

Any refund due to a student who paid out-of-pocket or by third-party tuition assistance, will be returned to the authorizer via the same method used for the original payment(s).

If the student withdraws or is dismissed after the student receives a federal direct student loan disbursement, it will often be necessary for TLS to return money to the federal government in accordance with the policy set forth in the consumer information guide. This may include amounts previously credited to the student's tuition account. In such a case, the student agrees to pay TLS any balance of tuition owed from their personal funds within 30 days of the withdrawal or dismissal.

For the withdrawal to be effective, the student must follow these procedures, including filling out the request to withdrawal from located on TLS website in the student center:

- With the exception of cancellation or withdrawal notices, any notices to TLS under this agreement may be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid to Taft Law School, 3000 W. MacArthur Blvd, Suite 300, Santa Ana, CA 92704-6954, (714) 850-4800, or emailed to cruz@taftu.edu. Notices to the student shall be sent to the address of record in the student's academic file.
- For the protection of the student, notices of cancellation or withdrawal should be in writing, signed by the student, and sent or emailed to the above addresses within five business days of the time the student expressed their intention to cancel or withdraw. Please see comment about the Request to Withdrawal form.
- In providing written notice of withdrawal by mail, the student should utilize certified mail or the services of a common carrier such as Federal Express or United Parcel Service.
- Provided the student follows the above procedure, refunds will be calculated based on the date the student expressed, in any manner, their intention to withdraw. If the student fails to follow this procedure, refunds will be calculated based on the date TLS receives actual written knowledge.
- Dismissals shall be effective on the date such action is taken by the administration or when the student fails to maintain the administrative/academic standards set forth in the student handbook, whichever shall occur first.

Cancellations

If a student cancels enrollment within five days of student's execution of the enrollment agreement, TLS will refund all money paid by the student. "Enrollment" for refund purposes is considered to have become effective upon execution of the enrollment agreement by the student. Should a student cancel this agreement within 14 days after the start date of the current academic year, TLS will refund 100% of tuition charges paid by the student.

Refunds are calculated on a prorated basis, based on a fifty-two (52) week academic year. The prorated amount is 2% per week up to 60% of the academic year. Thereafter, if the student withdraws or is dismissed, the student shall be entitled to a prorated refund of tuition charges up to thirty weeks from the date of enrollment. No refunds are payable after week thirty and refunds are not payable for completed courses. For refund calculation purposes, any withdrawal shall become effective on the date the student notifies TLS, in any manner, of the student's intent.

Return to Title IV (R2T4) Calculation

If a student receives federal student aid and decides to withdraw or is dismissed from TLS before completing 60% of a payment period, federal law requires that TLS, and in some instances the student, return unearned funds to the U.S. Department of Education. For these cases, a student's financial aid must be reassessed using the percentage of aid earned using the following R2T4 funds formula:

The Taft University System, Inc.

1. Determine the amount of Title IV aid that was disbursed and that could have been disbursed.
2. Determine the date of withdrawal or dismissal and determine the percentage of the payment period attended by the student.
3. Determine the amount of Title IV aid earned by the student by multiplying the total Title IV aid for which the student was eligible by the percentage of time enrolled.
4. Compare the amount earned to the amount disbursed. If the amount earned is greater than the amount disbursed, then a post-withdrawal disbursement must be made if the student is eligible for a "late disbursement" under the cash management rules (34 CFR 668.164(g)). If the amount disbursed exceeds the amount earned, the Title IV aid must be returned.
5. Allocate the responsibility for returning unearned aid between the school and the student according to the portion of disbursed aid that could have been used to cover institutional charges and the portion that could have been disbursed directly to the student once institutional charges were covered.
6. Distribute the unearned Title IV aid back to the Title IV programs. Unearned aid which TLS is responsible for repaying shall be returned to the following sources, in order, up to the total net amount disbursed from each source:
 - a. Unsubsidized Direct Loans
 - b. Grad Plus Direct Loans

WHTU has adopted the following refund policy. Refundable tuition is defined as the tuition set in the enrollment documentation. For the purposes of refunds, each eight-week session is considered independent of other sessions. If a student cancels enrollment within the first week of a session (first seven days), the university will refund all tuition paid by the student. If the student withdraws or is dismissed after seven days of the start of the session, the student shall be entitled to a prorated refund as outlined below.

The chart below outlined tuition refunds based upon the date the university receives notification of intent to withdraw.

Week	Day of Semester	% of Tuition Refund
First Week	Day 1 to 7 of the 8-week session	100% tuition refund
Second Week	Day 8 to 14 of the semester	80% tuition refund
Third Week	Day 15 to 21 of the semester	60% tuition refund
Fourth Week	Day 22 to 28 of the semester	40% tuition refund
Fifth Week	Day 29 to 35 of the semester	20% tuition refund
Sixth Week	Day 36 or later	No Refund

No refunds are payable after the start of week six in the eight-week session. Refunds are not payable for completed courses. As an example of the refund policy, a student who withdraws the fourth week of the eight-week session (day 25), having paid tuition in the amount of $1,000 would receive a refund of $400 ($1,000 multiplied by 40%).

For refund calculation purposes, any withdrawal shall be based on the date student notifies the university with an intent to withdraw. Withdrawal does not relieve students of the obligation to pay for charges incurred prior to the date of withdrawal. Unless otherwise noted in writing, university fees are non-refundable. The university will issue refunds pursuant to the above conditions within 30 days of notification.

Dismissals shall be effective on the date such action is taken by the administration or when a student fails to maintain the academic standards set forth in the catalog, whichever shall occur first. If a loan was obtained to pay for tuition, it is the student's responsibility to repay the full amount of any loan plus any interest. Student is advised that some financial institutions require the university to repay any refunds due directly to the lender and student expressly authorizes the university to comply with such requests.

Return to Title IV (R2T4)

When a Title IV student withdraws from the university, a return to Title IV (R2T4) calculation is completed, which may require the student to return unearned funds to the Department of Education. A student will not receive additional Title IV awards until the dollars have been repaid.

Although a student may receive financial aid funds at the beginning of a term, the student must "earn" funds over the course of a term by continuing to meet academic and attendance requirements. When a student does not complete a term of study, the university will determine the earned and unearned portion of the student's aid within federal regulations.

During a Return to Title IV Funds calculation, the payment period is defined as the semester the student withdrew. To determine the percentage earned, divide the total number of days completed before the student withdrew from the course or program by the total number of days in the payment period. If a student meets academic participation requirements for over 60% of the term before the withdrawal occurs, the student has earned all their federal financial aid and is not required to return any funds. If a student withdraws having met 60% or less of academic participation requirements, there will be unearned funds to return.

Withdrawal and Readmission

Voluntary Withdrawal

Students may withdraw without prejudice by written notification to student support at any time within the semester as indicated in their enrollment agreement. Additional procedures to terminate enrollment may be found in the enrollment agreement.

A student who has not voluntarily withdrawn and who fails to complete a course or courses within the required time period will receive an administrative dismissal for the subject course(s) unless the student has appealed for additional time and such appeal was approved by WHTU.

Refunds of tuition upon withdrawal will be granted in accordance with the refund policy set forth in the enrollment agreement.

Students who find they must withdraw because of financial difficulties are urged to seek counseling before taking action to ensure that they have considered all of the financial assistance options which are available to WHTU students.

Readmission After Withdrawal in Good Standing

A student who has successfully completed any credits at WHTU and who has withdrawn for longer than one calendar year must appeal to the dean (or their designate) to be allowed to reenroll as a continuing student. As a condition to their readmission, a student who has withdrawn for longer than one calendar year may be required to repeat courses taken prior to his/her withdrawal. Readmission after withdrawal is at the discretion of the dean and is reviewed on a case-by-case basis. If the student's absence has been greater than one calendar year, the student will also be required to complete the application process for re-entry.

Readmission After Dismissal

An individual who wishes to be readmitted after dismissal must appeal to the Admissions Office directly and show the requisite ability for successful study or evidence demonstrating a stronger potential for study. If the student's absence has been greater than one calendar year, the student will also be required to complete the application process for re-entry.

The Taft University System, Inc.

WHTU Return to Title IV Refund Policy

For students receiving federally insured student loans, WHTU is required to apply the federal return provisions for recipients of Federal Student Aid (FSA). The Return of Title IV Refund Policy is in addition to the school's tuition refund policy. Both calculations will be completed when the student withdraws. DEAC has additional institutional refund policy provisions. If a student withdraws before completing more than 60% of the payment period, the percentage of FSA funds earned will equal the percentage of the calendar days completed in the payment period up to the withdrawal date on a prorata basis. After the 60% point in the payment period, a student has earned 100% of the FSA funds he or she was scheduled to receive during the period.

TLS Return to Title IV Refund Policy

For the Juris Doctor programs, TLS will determine the earned and unearned portion of Title IV aid when a student ceases enrollment prior to the planned completion date. Up through 60% of the 26-week Payment Period, otherwise eligible students earn Title IV aid on a pro rata basis. After 60%, the student has earned 100% of Title IV benefits.

- A return calculation is still required even if a student has earned 100% of Title IV benefits to determine whether a post-withdrawal disbursement (PWD) to the student is required. The deadline for PWD response is no later than 30 days from the school's date of determination.
- If funds are to be returned, funds will be deposited in our federal account for a loan recovery to be processed no later than 45 days of the date of determination.
- Unearned aid which the school is responsible for repaying shall be returned to the following sources, in order, up to the total net amount disbursed from each source:
 1. Unsubsidized Direct Loans,
 2. Grad Plus Direct Loans.

The formula in brief is as follows:

- Determine the amount of Title IV aid that was disbursed and that could have been disbursed. (Step 1 on Worksheet.)
- Determine the date of withdrawal and determine the percentage of the payment period attended by the student. (Step 2)
 - A. When a student officially withdraws or is dismissed (unofficial withdrawal) during a payment period, the date of dismissal for Return to Title IV purposes will be the last date of student's learning activity.
 - B. Divide the calendar days completed in the period by the total number of days in the period.
 - C. Completed days/total days = percentage.
- Determine the amount of Title IV aid earned by the student by multiplying the total Title IV aid for which the student was eligible by the percentage of time enrolled. (Step 3)
- Compare the amount earned to the amount disbursed. If the amount earned is greater than the amount disbursed, then a post-withdrawal disbursement must be made if the student is eligible for a "late disbursement" under the cash management rules (34 CFR 668.164(g)). If the amount disbursed exceeds the amount earned, the Title IV aid must be returned. (Step 4)

The Taft University System, Inc.

- Allocate the responsibility for returning unearned aid between the school and the student according to the portion of disbursed aid that could have been used to cover institutional charges and the portion that could have been disbursed directly to the student once institutional charges were covered. (Step 5, 6, 7 and 8)
- Distribute the unearned Title IV aid back to the Title IV programs. Unearned aid which the School is responsible for repaying shall be returned to the following sources, in order, up to the total net amount disbursed from each source: 1.) Unsubsidized Direct Loans, and 2.) Grad Plus Direct Loans.

TUS will use a worksheet to calculate the responsibility, if any, for the return of Title IV funds. Since TUS does not participate in any grant programs, the formula above will only be used to calculate the amount of Title IV loans that may need to be returned. TUS will also calculate any refund that may be owed to the student pursuant to the TUS' Refund Policy. If a refund is due, monies will be returned pursuant to Federal, State and accreditation regulations.

WHTU Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy

This policy applies to all WHTU students. A Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy is essential for determining whether a student can successfully finish their program. WHTU firmly believes in supporting students' success and reviews academic progress to ensure that students do not continue in programs where they cannot succeed.

All students must continually maintain the following standards to remain in good standing at the university. Federal regulations require institutions to establish a reasonable Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy for determining whether an otherwise eligible student is meeting SAP in an educational program and may receive financial aid under the Title IV HEA programs. The SAP policy applies to all students, in all academic programs including those not receiving federal financial aid under the Title IV HEA programs, regardless of enrollment status. Students must maintain SAP throughout the duration of their academic program to remain eligible for federal financial aid.

The policies and procedures that make up the satisfactory academic progress requirements for university programs consist of:

- A Qualitative Component
- A Quantitative Component
- Appeal Procedures

Qualitative and Quantitative Components

A student is subject to all of the requirements outlined in the Academic Requirements and Expectations and Expectations and Academic Standing and Retention sections of the catalog.

Grade Point Average

To remain in good academic standing, a student enrolled in the program must earn a minimum grade point average (GPA) that would allow them to graduate with at least a 3.0 GPA (2.0 for BSBA, JDET, or LLM students) and maintain this minimum cumulative GPA throughout the program.

Pace of Progress Toward Graduation

A student must complete their studies in not more than 150% of the published length of the program. (For purposes of this component, "published length of the program" refers to the required number of credits.) For example, the MBA program requires the completion of 30 credit hours to meet the degree requirements. A student who is on financial aid and does not complete the program within 45 credits (150% of the total credit required) will become ineligible for additional student loans and lose financial aid eligibility.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Evaluation Points

A student's academic progress is evaluated at the end of each semester. Students who have not met the GPA or pace standards will be reviewed to determine whether they have met SAP and whether they should be placed on academic or financial aid warning, probation, or be dismissed.

Transfer Students and Repeated Classes

Applicants seeking transfer credit for units earned at another institution will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Transfer credit may only be accepted for courses offered at William Howard Taft University. Any transfer credit accepted will be calculated for determining the 150% of the published length of the program. Transfer students must also earn a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 (2.0 for the BSBA, JDET and LLM programs) at the program midpoint to meet financial aid eligibility.

Students may only repeat courses that they withdrew from, were dismissed from, or failed. Only the most recent grade is computed into a student's GPA. However, repeated courses are included in the 150% computation.

Academic Warning

Academic warning is a formal notice given to students whose academic performance falls below the required standards. It is a cautionary measure to alert students that they are at risk of academic probation or dismissal if their performance does not improve. When applicable, the warning will include guidelines and resources for students to help improve their grades and meet academic expectations. If a student fails to satisfy the requirements, the student is subject to academic probation, dismissal, or other consequences. Students who were academically dismissed will be placed on academic warning should they reenroll in the university.

Academic Probation

Academic probation is a status assigned to students whose academic performance falls below the required standards. This status serves as a formal warning and indicates that the student must improve their grades to continue their enrollment. While on academic probation, students may be required to meet specific conditions, such as achieving a minimum GPA in subsequent semesters, meeting with academic advisors, or attending study skills workshops. Failure to meet these conditions may result in academic suspension or dismissal from the institution. A student on academic warning who does not meet the SAP requirements and is not making progress toward meeting SAP after the most recent academic term will be placed on academic probation. The CAO or delegate watches SAP for a student on academic probation closely. Students have the right to appeal these decisions.

Failure to Cure Academic Probation

Failure to meet the minimum standards will subject a student to dismissal from the program. Once a student fails to make SAP, academic probation will be in effect until the completion of the next term. A student with a cumulative GPA below 3.0 (2.0 for BSBA, JDET, or LLM students) or not meeting the quantitative measure is subject to dismissal. The student may appeal. If there are mitigating circumstances, grades may be reassessed (see academic appeal).

Financial Aid Warning

A financial aid warning is notice given to students who fail to meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards required to maintain their financial aid eligibility. This warning allows students one more term to improve their academic performance and meet the SAP requirements without losing their financial aid. If the student does not meet the necessary standards by the end of the warning period, they may lose their financial aid eligibility until they achieve the required academic progress.

Financial Aid Probation

Financial aid probation occurs when a student fails to meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards after a financial aid warning. During probation, the student must meet specific terms to continue receiving financial aid. If the student meets these conditions, they can continue receiving aid; if not, they may lose eligibility for future financial aid. Students may appeal this financial aid status determination to regain financial aid eligibility for one payment period (see financial aid appeals process). If a student fails to make SAP and loses financial aid, the university president or assigned designee will decide whether to allow the student to continue on academic probation. During this period, the student is not eligible for federal financial aid but may continue taking courses and be responsible for tuition and fees.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Academic Appeal

A student may appeal a determination that the student is not making SAP by sending an appeal to the university president or designee of the university. The appeal should set forth in detail why the student did not achieve SAP and what the student will do to achieve SAP going forward. The president or designee will review the student's appeal and their academic record and evaluate the student's written comments. The president or designee may question the student or request additional information.

If the president or designee determines that the student's grades were awarded correctly, the student will be notified, and the grades will stand as awarded. If the president or designee determines that the student's grades were not properly awarded, the Academic Review Committee (ARC) will design a remedy to correct the grades. This may include, but is not limited to, allowing a student to retake such examinations as may be appropriate, having current examinations re-graded, or order such other actions that may equitably resolve the student's appeal. Once the appeal is resolved and if any action is required, the director of financial aid will be notified to reevaluate whether the student has met the SAP standards.

Financial Aid Appeal

The financial aid director will be notified of students who are either on warning or on probation, as this may impact their access to financial aid. Students will be informed on how their academic performance might impact their access to financial aid. A student may appeal a determination of probation to the university president or designee by sending an email to student services. The appeal should outline in detail a concise statement detailing what extenuating circumstances occurred that caused the student to have the inability to meet SAP and what has changed so that the student may now meet SAP.

A student may appeal a determination of ineligibility for financial aid by sending an appeal to the director of financial aid. The appeal should set forth in detail a concise statement detailing what extenuating circumstances caused the student to be unable to meet SAP and what has changed so that the student may now meet SAP. The appeal will then be given to the chief academic officer (CAO) who will review the student's file and evaluate the student's written comments.

If the appeal is denied the student will be notified, and the probation status will stand.

If the appeal is approved, the probation status may be cleared.

Once the appeal is resolved and if any action is required, the director of financial aid will notify the student of its outcome and whether the appeal was approved or denied.

Reinstatement as a Title IV Student

Subject to the evaluation and record review by the financial aid director, Title IV will be reinstated after failing to make SAP if the student meets the following minimum criteria:

- a. The student has successfully completed at least one term on academic probation.
- b. A recalculated grade point average indicates that the student now has a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (2.0 for BSBA, JDET or LLM students) or higher; and
- c. It is possible for the student to complete the program in 150% of the published length.

TLS Satisfactory Academic Policy

This section applies to all students regardless of whether they are receiving financial aid through the federal direct student loan programs.

Federal regulations require institutions to establish a reasonable satisfactory academic progress (SAP) policy for determining whether an otherwise eligible student is meeting SAP in an educational program and may receive financial aid under the Title IV HEA programs. The SAP policy applies to all students including those not receiving federal financial aid under the Title IV HEA programs.

All students must continually maintain the following standards of SAP.

The policies and procedures that make up the SAP requirements for the Juris Doctor – Attorney and Executive Track (JDAT and JDET) program and consists of:

- A Qualitative Component
- Quantitative Component
- Appeal Procedures

Qualitative and Quantitative Components

A student is subject to the requirements set forth in the Academic Requirements and Expectations and Academic Standing and Retention policies in this catalog. In addition, once a student has been enrolled in the program for two academic years, they must have earned a minimum GPA that would allow them to graduate with at least a 2.00 GPA and maintain this minimum cumulative GPA at the end of year three.

A student must complete their studies in not more than 150% of the published length of the program. (For purposes of this component, “published length of the program” refers to the required number of units.)

The JDAT program requires completion of 96 units for graduation. Therefore, any student who attempts more than 144 units will become ineligible for additional federally insured student loans.

Applicants seeking transfer credit for units earned at another institution will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Transfer credit may only be accepted for courses offered at TLS. Any transfer credit accepted will be calculated for determining 150% of the published length of the program. Transfer students must also earn a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00 or higher at the program midpoint to meet financial aid eligibility.

If a student fails or withdraws from a course, such course shall be calculated as units attempted in the calculation in determining the 150% of the published length of the program.

With respect to repeated courses, students may only repeat courses that they withdrew from, were dismissed from, or failed. However, if a student fails one course in the JDAT program, pursuant to the Committee of Bar Examiners rules, they must repeat the entire year. Only the most recent grade is computed into a student’s GPA. However, repeated courses are included in the 150% computation.

A student may only transfer from the JDAT program to William Howard Taft University and only at the end/completion of an academic year. Units earned or attempted in the JDAT program will be used in the calculation for determining the 150% of the published length of the JDET program.

The Taft University System, Inc.

A student must complete an academic year of 52 weeks (two payment periods) which includes 46 weeks of instruction. (The remaining weeks are reserved for review and taking final examinations.) All students in directed study courses must each week log on to their learning platform to confirm that they are still participating. Students are required to log into the platform and either participate in a discussion forum, assignment discussion forum, submit an assignment, take a quiz, or take a midterm exam. Students who do not log on and participate will be dismissed from the program and therefore deemed NOT to be making SAP.

Evaluation Points

A student's academic progress is evaluated at the end of each academic year. The definition of an academic year consists of a period of time of not less than 48 nor more than 52 consecutive weeks and usually consists of 24 semester credits. For students on a satisfactory academic improvement plan (SAIP), SAP is evaluated at the end of each payment period.

The Qualitative Component

Academic Probation

A student whose cumulative GPA is less than a 2.0 after the most recent academic year is not making SAP and will be placed on academic probation and is subject to dismissal. However, a student may appeal the SAP determination. If the appeal is granted, the student will be allowed to continue as a student on academic probation but will be placed on a SAIP. SAP for a student on academic probation will be monitored at the midpoint and end of the next academic year. If at the midpoint or end of the next academic year, while on academic probation, a student fails to satisfy the SAIP requirements, the student is again subject to dismissal.

Once a student has been enrolled in the program for two academic years, they must have earned a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher and maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA at the end of year two to make SAP. Transfer students must also earn a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00 or higher at the program midpoint to meet financial aid eligibility.

All Juris Doctor program students are subject to all of the requirements set forth in the Academic Requirements and Expectations and the Academic Standing and Retention sections of this catalog.

Failure to Cure Academic Probation

Failure to meet the minimum standards prior to the program length midpoint will subject a student to dismissal from the program. Once a student fails to make SAP, academic probation will be in effect until the completion of the next grading period. At the program length midpoint and beyond, students with a cumulative GPA below 2.0 are subject to dismissal. The student may appeal. If there are mitigating circumstances, grades may be reassessed. (See Academic Appeal process).

Financial Aid Probation

Students who do not achieve SAP at the end of an academic year, a 2.0 GPA, will lose further federal financial aid eligibility. Students may appeal this financial aid status determination to regain financial aid eligibility for one payment period (see financial aid appeals process). If the appeal is granted, a student will be put on financial aid probation, may retain financial aid eligibility for one additional payment period and is put on a SAIP. SAP will be monitored at the end of each payment period in the next academic year to determine the student's financial aid eligibility status.

If at the end of the first payment period while on financial aid probation, a student fails to satisfy the SAIP requirements, the student will lose further financial aid eligibility.

The Taft University System, Inc.

If at the end of that academic year, while on financial aid probation, a student fails to satisfy the SAIP requirements, the student will lose further financial aid eligibility.

Should the minimum SAP requirement not be achieved at the midpoint of the program or thereafter, the student loses further financial aid eligibility, until SAP is achieved.

Should the minimum SAP requirement not be achieved at the midpoint of the program or thereafter, the student loses further financial aid eligibility, until SAP is achieved.

Qualifying for Financial Aid

During Year One

Financial aid is distributed in two equal installments. To qualify for the first installment, a student must:

1. Submit official transcripts for degree determining program eligibility.
2. Pass Introduction to Law (the first three-week course).
3. Successfully complete 30 days of enrollment.
4. Satisfy all Financial Aid requirements, including being fully packaged.

During Continuing Years (2-4)

Financial aid is distributed in two equal installments. To qualify for the first installment, a student must:

1. Successfully complete 30 days of enrollment.
2. Satisfy all financial aid requirements, including being fully packaged.

To qualify for the second installment, a student must:

1. Successfully complete at least 26 weeks of study.
2. Complete all midterms for all courses in which the student is enrolled.
3. Midterms must be completed within stated timeframes.

Second installments cannot be requested prior to the last scheduled midterm due date as stated on syllabi. Second disbursements will be distributed after completion of the midterm period approximately week 30.

After Year One (for advanced students and students reenrolling)

If a student did not make SAP in their prior year, they will be placed on a SAIP. Academic progress for students on a SAIP will be evaluated at midpoint and at the end of the academic year. If the student has not satisfied the SAIP requirements, they may lose financial aid eligibility unless the student appeals and the appeal is approved.

To qualify for the first installment of financial aid after year one, a student must:

1. If a transfer student, submit official transcripts for degree determining program eligibility and prior law for which transfer credit was granted.
2. Successfully complete 30 days of enrollment.
3. Satisfy all financial aid requirements, including being fully packaged.

To qualify for the second installment, a student must:

1. Successfully complete at least 26 weeks of study.
2. Complete all midterms for all courses that have midterms.
3. Midterms must be completed within stated timeframes.
4. If a student is enrolled in a course that does not have a midterm, the student must have completed at least half of the assignments for that course.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Second installments cannot be requested prior to the last scheduled midterm due date or half of assignments without midterms due date as stated in syllabi.

Special Rules for First Year Students

California Business and Professional Code Section 6060 requires that bar candidates must pass the First Year Law Students' Examination (FYLSX) to receive credit for their time studying law. To ensure the best possible outcome on the FYLSX, only students who achieved a 2.00 GPA or above on their first-year courses may automatically advance to year two, prior to taking the FYLSX.

To advance from first to second year:

1. A student must pass all first-year courses to advance.
2. A student with a GPA of 2.00 or above may advance at his or her discretion.
3. A student with a GPA of 1.33 to a 1.99 may petition to advance.
4. A student with a GPA below 1.33 must pass the FYLSX before allowed to advance or appeal is approved based on extenuating circumstances.

In all other years a student must pass all courses to advance and meet the TLS' standards for measuring SAP.

Continuation as a Non-Title IV Student on Academic Probation

If a student fails to make SAP, at the midpoint of the program or thereafter, the student will be on academic probation and is subject to dismissal. However, a student may be eligible to continue but will not be eligible for financial aid. The decision to allow the student to continue on academic probation will be made by the dean of the school of law or their designate. During this period, the student is not eligible for federal financial aid but may continue to take courses and will be responsible for tuition and fees.

Academic Appeal

A student may appeal a determination that the student is not making SAP by sending an appeal to the administrative offices of the law school. The appeal should set forth in detail why the student did not achieve SAP and what the student will do to achieve SAP going forward.

The appeal will then be given to the Academic Review Committee (ARC) that will review the student's academic record and evaluate the student's written comments. The ARC may question the student or request additional information.

If the ARC determines that the student's grades were properly awarded, the student will be notified, and the grades will stand as awarded.

If the ARC determines that the student's grades were not properly awarded, the ARC will design a remedy to correct the grades. This may include, but is not limited to, allowing a student to retake such examinations as may be appropriate, having current examinations re-graded, or order such other actions that may equitably resolve the student's appeal.

Once the appeal is resolved and if any action is required, the director of financial aid will be notified to reevaluate whether the student has met the SAP standards.

The Taft University System, Inc.

Financial Aid Appeal

A student may appeal a determination of being ineligible for financial aid by sending an appeal to the director of financial aid. The appeal should set forth in detail a concise statement detailing what extenuating circumstances occurred that caused the student to have the inability to meet SAP and what has changed so that the student may now meet SAP.

The appeal will then be given to the chief academic officer who will review the student's academic file and evaluate the student's written comments.

If the appeal is denied the student will be notified, and the probation status will stand.

If the appeal is approved, the probation status may be cleared.

Once the appeal is resolved and if any action is required, the director of financial aid will notify the student of its outcome and whether the appeal was approved or denied.

Reinstatement as a Title IV Student

A student may, subject to the approval, be reinstated as a Title IV student after failing to make SAP if the student meets the following minimum criteria:

- The student has successfully completed at least one academic year on academic probation.
- A recalculated GPA indicates that the student now has a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or higher.
- It is possible for the student to complete the program in not more than the maximum number of units allowed (144).

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students receiving Federal Student Aid have varying rights and responsibilities. These rights and responsibilities include receiving the following information:

- The need-based and non-need-based federal financial aid that is available to students.
- The need-based and non-need-based state and local aid programs, university aid programs, and what other private aid programs are available.
- How students apply for aid and how eligibility is determined.
- How the school distributes aid among students.
- How and when financial aid will be disbursed.
- The terms of the schedules for, and the necessity of loan repayment and required loan entrance and exit counseling.
- The criteria for measuring satisfactory academic progress; and how a student who has failed to maintain satisfactory progress may reestablish eligibility for federal financial aid.

Textbooks

The required textbooks for each of the courses throughout the period of study are presented in the syllabus for each course. Please refer to Moodle LMS for the syllabus.

Vaccination Policy

As an online school, TUS students are not required to provide proof of immunization for admissions to TLS or WHTU.

Verification of Identification

TUS is required to verify the identity of all its students. To do this, students are required to submit a copy of government issued photographic identification within 30 days of the start of courses. TUS has systems in place to identify and resolve discrepancies in information received from different sources including the use of false identities. Suspected violators will be referred to the Inspector General of the US Department of Education.

Voter Registration Information

The Federal Higher Education Act requires all California colleges and universities that participate in Federal student aid programs to make voter registration forms available to their students. The link below will take you to the website of the Secretary of State of California where you can register to vote in any county in California (providing you are a resident of the State of California and otherwise qualified.) Most other states have similar websites.
