

DISTANCE EDUCATION ACCREDITING COMMISSION

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT DISCLOSURE FOR THE PUBLIC

DEAC accredited institutions offer a broad array of instructional programs and student support services to meet varied educational and professional goals of a highly diverse student population. Institutions determine appropriate performance criteria to measure the success of their students in achieving their goals in the context of the institution's specific mission and scope. You will find below (1) a summary of how this institution measures student achievement in the context of the institution's mission and educational programs, and (2) student achievement metrics which the institution believes best reflect student and program performance. For more information about DEAC standards and requirements, please visit www.deac.org.

This information was prepared by Taft Law School and published on its website on 10/17/2025

Summary of Institution Mission and Student Achievement

The mission of the Taft University System, comprised of William Howard Taft University and Taft Law School, is to offer unique, innovative distance learning educational programs at a reasonable cost to qualified applicants, providing for positive career outcomes in the law, business, and education sectors.

It is an objective of the school to utilize advancing technologies in the delivery of its educational services.

Taft Law School regularly analyses assessment data as part of our institutional effectiveness plan to determine if we are meeting our Mission. Assessment data comes in many forms. Such data includes, but is not limited to, the demographics of our enrollees, input from students, graduates, and faculty, student performance, student growth and improvement throughout the program, and student performance on Bar Examinations.

Aggregated Institutional Data on Student Achievement

Taft Law School was registered with the Committee of Bar Examiners for the State Bar of California in 1984. Taft's first graduates sat for the California General Bar Examination in 1987.

Taft Law School (Originally known as The Witkin School of Law within William Howard Taft University) was established in 1984.

Taft Law School has had 486 graduates in its Juris Doctor-Attorney Track Program

Taft Law School established a Juris Doctor-Executive Track Program in 2005. In May 2021, this program was transferred to our sister school, William Howard Taft University, in Denver, Colorado.

Institutional Graduation Rate: 2019 - 79%

Calculated by reporting completion within 150% of normal completion time designated by TLS and is based on a group of students who enrolled in that cohort tracked over time. This student cohort rate includes full-time students who established eligibility to complete the Program by successfully completing the California State Bar requirement of the First Year Law Students Examination.